

Senior Consultant – Health, Brussels

Seeking senior public affairs practitioner with experience in European health policy to join our award-winning team in Brussels.

As a Senior Consultant at Interel, you will play a leading role in both the delivery of high-quality work across a range of health sector clients and the development of the business.

Personal characteristics:

Successful candidates will encompass some or all of the below characteristics:

- Productive, self-starter with positive attitude and eagerness to contribute to a fast-growing and dynamic European-based consultancy.
- Ability to line manage a pool of talented Junior Consultants in manner that encourages their development and growth.
- Strong business acumen and ability to lead pitch process.

Core responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Leading client accounts, including strategy development and programme implementation.
- Managing the delivery of services by other members of the team to ensure programmes are delivered on time and to a high standard.
- Supporting pitch process including the development of strategy and innovative approaches.
- Monitoring political developments and providing recommendations to team and clients on the implications and possible actions.

Requirements:

- The successful candidate will have at 5-10 years' experience of working in health policy and communications including in consulting environment.
- Demonstrable excellence in both verbal and written communications.
- In-depth knowledge of EU health policy and a strong understanding of EU decision-making processes and broader influencers
- Critical thinking, problem solving and proficient leadership qualities
- Strong project management skills and ability to manage multiple assignments and tasks

We offer a competitive remuneration package and outstanding opportunities for personal development. To Apply please send CV and covering letter to julie.cooper@interelgroup.com by 12 July.